“ Debo loved to make people laugh. That's for sure. She was the one who introduced me to ham salad and chalupas. She is also the one who introduced me to the beach after Nano and Papa passed. This was a safe place for us to go to get our thoughts together, to speak to God, Nano and Papa, and be one with the beach. If it wasn't for her I would not have learned to collect sea glass, juju beans, and beautiful unique shells. For me she was a light when there was darkness. She could always take a bad day and make it a good day with her silly jokes, corny faces and dances. I know we are not blood related but in my eyes you have always been my Debo, my Aunt, since I was eight. I love and miss you Debo!! See you Saturday we will be celebrating you.
