“ Deloris was a wonderful lady. I cut her lawn, but I knew Deloris as a wonderful conversationalist. She was my "friend". She was extremely witty and very knowledgeable about many things. I felt very honored to know her, I felt more enlightened just by talking and listening to her. She so much loves her family. She often bragged about her sons to me. Go Longhorns, she knew I went to UT as did her son. She was proud of Texas and her conservative stance on life. I think I spent more time sharing current events than I did cutting her lawn. Her last words to me after every conversation was "Fred, Go out there and be careless". Deloris, it's your turn to be careless, I will miss our private talks, I will just miss you. To the family. Deloris is resting, but will be waiting for you when its time. I pray for comfort, joy, and laughter for you all during these trying times. Fred Cartmill- Round Rock, Texas.
