

Dewey Franklin Deutsch

July 19, 1931 - December 9, 2020

Dewey Franklin Deutsch, 89, passed on peacefully at his home in Birch Creek Forest on Wednesday, December 9, 2020. Graveside services will be held Monday, December 14, at 2 pm in the Caldwell Masonic Cemetery. Viewing and visitation will be held an hour before the services also at the cemetery. Pastor Wayne Calder will preside over services.

Dewey Deutsch was born in Caldwell, TX on July 19, 1931 to parents Franklin Krueger and Eunice Adelle (Burney) Deutsch. Dewey enjoyed riding motorcycles and was the founder of Houston Texas Chapter of H.O.G. Harley Owners Group. He was also the former Chief of the Birch Creek Forest Volunteer Fire Department. Dewey was also on the Birch Creek Planning and Zoning Board and the Birch Creek Recreation Water Supply. He took great pride and responsibility with each of these positions and made sure things were done correctly. As a 'side job' he was the 'Event D. J. ' for his subdivision. Dewey enjoyed tinkering with old electronics and fixing old record players. He was a man with many talents.

Dewey was preceded in death by his loving wife, Minnie Aurelia (Miller) Deutsch; his parents, Franklin Krueger and Eunice Adelle (Burney) Deutsch; and a sister, Rita Dunagan.

He is survived by his two daughters, Beverly Deutsch and Carolyn Elaine Deutsch; grandchildren, Dustin Summer Logan, Adale Rene Kolenovsky, and Theresa Ann Kolenovsky; great grandchildren, Joshua Summer Logan, Madison Smith and Alora Elaine Domel; niece, Norma Stiglich; and nephew, Patrick Dunagan.

The family would like to express their gratitude to those in his subdivision who helped care for him in his last days. In lieu of flowers the family suggests to make a donation to the Birch Creek Area Volunteer Fire Department or to the charity of their choice.
