October 24, 1921 - December 28, 2016

Dolma Nell "Dottie" Sorenson of Lexington, Texas, was called to her heavenly home on December 28, 2016 after several years of battling a vascular disease. Celebration of Life services will be held at 10:00 am, Saturday, December 31, 2016 at Shiloh Baptist Church with Dr. Larry Givens of Temple, former pastor at Shiloh, and Bro. Ray Dennis, current pastor, officiating. Burial will follow at Mesquite Cemetery, near Lexington, Texas with Dr. James Featherstone officiating. Visitation will be from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm, Friday, December 30, 2016 at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Lexington.

Dottie was born in the Liberty Community in Lee County, Texas on October 24, 1921 to Travis A. and Dora C. (Schutt) Hart, the youngest of six children. She lived her whole life in the country within five miles of where she was born, until moving to the nursing facility. On March 11, 1939, she married the love of her life, Archie H. Sorenson, at the Methodist Parsonage in Lexington. This was to be a long lasting, very loving relationship where each was not only completely devoted to the other, but also devoted to God. Theirs was a marriage that was an inspiration to many.

She took great pride in being a housewife. Cooking, baking, preserving vegetables and fruit grown in the family garden, keeping house and caring for her family in a Christian home. She greatly enjoyed serving in her church, first at Watson Branch Union Baptist Church, then at First Shiloh Baptist Church.

In death, she was reunited with her husband of 73 years, Archie Sorenson on April 5, 2012; her parents, Travis and Dora Hart; brothers, Lester Hart and wife Hettie, Oscar Hart and wife Ethel, Ray Hart and wife Mildred, and Jesse Hart and wife Hazel Jean; sister, Adell Cox and husband Ruben; as well as several nieces, nephews, and numerous friends.

Dottie was a loving, caring mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and will be greatly missed by her daughters, Sharon Roelse of Hutto, Texas and Judy Featherstone and husband James of Huntsville, Texas; and son-in-law, Al Roelse of Austin, Texas.

Love shared is love multiplied and her family grew to include five grandchildren who have many happy memories of time spent in the country at Mama and Papa's. They include Chris Roelse and wife Carolyn of Round Rock, Texas, Shannon Featherstone Muir and husband John of Pasadena, Texas, Jody Roelse and wife Roxane of Pflugerville, Amber Featherstone Uwague and husband Ted of New York City, New York, and Danyel Featherstone Rogers and husband Brandon of Tuscola, Texas.

She was also blessed with 15 great-grandchildren, Kylie, Caden and Cullen Roelse, Lydia, Bethany, Andrew and Nathan Muir, Avery and Ashley Roelse, Thorin and Harlem Uwague, Mya, Bennett, Lucas and Quinn Rogers.

The family would like to thank the Nurses and CNA's at SPJST Specialized Nursing and Rehabilitation Facility in Taylor where Dottie spent her last three years for their patience and loving care.

Memorials may be made in Dottie's memory to Shiloh Baptist Building Fund, 100 County Road 481, Thrall, Texas 76578 or to Texas Baptist Children's Home, 1101 North Mays Street, Round Rock, Texas 78664 or Mesquite
