Don was born November 28, 1945, in Mexia, Texas to Ernest and Bessie (Huddleston) Hurst. He was one of six children. He was baptized in the Methodist Church and later confirmed in 1967 at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Austin, Texas. Don was united in marriage to Carol Lerche on July 1, 1967, at Redeemer Lutheran Church. To this union they were blessed with two children, Matt and Amy. Don worked for more than 50 years as a book binder at Custom Bookbinders, starting as an employee, and eventually acquiring the business as sole owner. Don was very active at Grace Lutheran Church, where he held the position of Elder and President. He also served as the youth leader of Grace alongside Carol for over ten years. Don was very active in his community, serving on the Manor ISD school board, the Manor Little League, and serving as President of the Manor Athletic Booster Club throughout the years. Don enjoyed working his cattle with his dog Lacy by his side. He avidly supported his grandchildren in all their activities and sporting events. His grandchildren will cherish the fond memories they made together at the beach every summer. From raising a family to working together at Custom Bookbinders to being their grandchildren's' # 1 fans, Don and Carol's strong bond was very special.
