*Dad, you taught me so many things in life but the most important that stuck with me are family values, love and Patience. I married someone that reminded me of you and though we were young you gave him your blessing and walked me down the aisle. I'm heartbroken for time lost, but remember all the wonderful memories and no chip buying after church because we had food at home (haha) Love you. God sure gained a good one. Praying for family left behind and for peace and comfort in this tragic loss. Love you forever ,

*Hey Donnie! Sorry for being so late and not finding you in time. You were one awesome friend back in high school in the 70's. Life separated us and we went different ways. I had always hoped to get together again. I'm glad to hear that you had a good life, and a loving family. You deserved that and more. God bless you, my brother!
Sincerely Duke*

“ Daddy Donald, was a cheesy joke telling frugal guy. I remember us as kids riding in back of his Toyoto pickup truck with a camper on the back. We would be loaded down, no matter where we went. He was very sporty and even though he mistakenly bought me bowling cleats (which were cheaper) for soccer , we won that summer. You are gone not forgotten. Thank you from teaching us right from wrong, even though we tested you. Praying for the family members you have left behind. Love you, Kyra, Kingston, & Alberto Davila

“ I remember when Don and I were at the drive in movie around 11 pm in Rockdale and one of our friends was way too intoxicated to drive home, so we agreed to take him home. We drove our friends car out to his house in Blackjack, which is almost half way to Caldwell! When he got out of the car, we got ready to drive back to town assuming we would bring his car back in the morning. He said that his mother would kill him if the car wasn't there in the morning! So Don and I start walking back to Rockdale from our friends house out in Blackjack! I think we arrived at his parents house around 6:30 or 7 am in the morning! Keep in mind there were no cell phones back then! Needless to say, not sure either of our parents were happy or believed us! Good times! Lol
