Donna Sue Koenig was born on December 17, 1957 in Austin, Texas to Billy "Bill" Horace Koenig and Dorothy Ann (Dodd) Koenig. Donna graduated from Scarborough High School, Houston, Texas in 1977. She worked for Snappy Printing Company in Houston for almost 40 years until moving to Ledbetter, Texas to take care of her Mom. Donna was a very fun and loving person, who treasured all her friends dearly.

She enjoyed shopping, dancing, and shopping! You never saw Donna with the same outfit on twice!

She loved going out to the dance halls in her early years, two-stepping the night away. She loved decorating and re-styling her home often. Donna was a good storyteller and loved to share her happenings and family memories often. After shortly moving to Ledbetter, she enjoyed her newfound job in retail at the Dollar General, in Burton, Texas. She made many new friends and loved giving the kids a treat when they came into the store. After leaving Dollar General life took her to another unknown territory, Round-Top Carmine Independent School District. She worked at the high school and found a new family that she loved as much as they loved her. She would talk and tell stories for hours about what happened during her workday. She loved pulling pranks on the students. She also supported and attended many of their sporting events. She especially loved seeing her beautiful niece, Caitie, (Coach Carney), coaching her girls to victory. Donna was a Sister and Aunt to many of her cousins, who will miss her greatly.

Donna passed away the afternoon of Wednesday, May 13, 2020 at Baylor Scott and White Medical Center in College Station.

Donna is preceded in death by her father, Bill Koenig, and her brother, Don Koenig.

She is survived by her mother, Dorothy Koenig of Ledbetter; her sister-in-law, Joyce Koenig of Hockley; three aunts, Marguerite Lawrence of Giddings, Brennice Koether of Giddings, and Diane White of Arlington, as well as numerous cousins.

Serving as pallbearers are Trace Hall, Dennis Placke, Brad Warzon, Robert Carney, Riley Weishuhn, and Lee Carney. Serving as honorary pallbearers are Alex Pieper, Kevin Polasek, Liborio Salinas, Randy Beck, Wyatt Carney, Clay Carney, Josh Carney, and Bob Lawrence.

Memorials may be made to the Round Top-Carmine I.S.D., P.O. Box 385, Carmine, Texas 78932 or to the charity of one's choice.

“ My most sincere condolences to the Koenig family and to all of Donna's family. I knew Don, her brother in the '70's and at Scarborough Jr/Sr High. I kinda sorta knew Donna also back then through Don. A few years ago I communicated with Donna via Classmates forum and we shared memories of the 70's from the old neighborhood and she told me of Don's passing. I picked up the notion she enjoyed dancing and she spoke of going to The Tin Hall and that she would visit her mom in Ledbetter. I am just now learning of Donna's passing. May the Lord watch over her in heaven.

“ I still cannot believe this. I met Donna last year when she came to work @RTC, we became friends right away. Donna was a special kind of friend. She didn't know a stranger. We had a lot of laughs and joked with each other daily. I will always treasure her friendship. Fly high Donna! Love you like a sis!
