She was born August 12, 1924 to Homer Grubbs and Lovie Lee (Locklin) Grubbs in Milam County and was a former resident of Thorndale. She graduated from Thorndale High School as Valedictorian. She also graduated from Austin School of Business. Mrs. Campbell and her husband Pete Campbell were married on March 26, 1954. She was a bookkeeper for Cen-Tex Cotton Oil Mill for 30+ years. She enjoyed gardening, canning, sewing and cooking.

Mrs. Campbell was preceded in death by her husband, Pete Campbell on February 11, 1998, her parents, Homer Grubbs, Henry and Lovie Lee Shavers and her brothers; Bert Shavers, Henry Shavers and Louie Shavers.

She is survived by her son, Jimmy Campbell and wife Sarah of Marlin; grandchildren, Derek Campbell and wife Kim, Casey Campbell and wife Lisa and Matthew Tindle and wife Stephanie; great grandchildren, Cole, Nash, Cade, Aria, Shawn, Layne, Tyler, Lyndie, Kaylee, and Emily; brothers, Billy Wayne Shavers and wife Linda of Thorndale, Donald Lee Shavers and wife Martha of Odessa and sister; Lou Ann Towery of Thorndale.

Mrs. Campbell was a member of Pleasant Retreat Methodist Church where she held many offices, the Pleasant Retreat Cemetery Association and the Thorndale Ex-students Association.

Doris loved the Lord, she loved her family (Jimmy being #1), she loved her friends and she adored her pets. She was strong willed (hard-headed) but a compassionate woman. She was a hard worker and dedicated to her responsibilities. To be such a petit woman, Doris was full of spirit, (a little firecracker). Doris was loved by many and she will be thought of everyday. May she rest in peace with her other heavenly angels.

By the way, she was an awesome Maw-Maw.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to the Thorndale Ex-Students Association, P.O. Box 393, Thorndale, Texas 76577.

“ Although we were Campbells, but not kin to them Pete and Doris made us feel like family when they came into our lives November 1975. We rented the trailer next to the hog farm and we've been family ever since. My girls loved going to stay with them in the summer after we moved away. There was always plenty to eat when you came to their house! I will always cherish the memories made with them. She's now back with the love of life Pete. Rest In Peace Doris ❤️
