“ R .I.P my aunt/second mom. I will always remember you and all the great times we had growing up. I love you and I wanted to think you for being there and watching us when mom needed you help. you earned your wings and not suffering no more you have your lags back you can walk with mom and dad and grandma and you sisters and brothers I will miss you all
I have learned life is very short the lord Never promised us a tomorrow I understand but I feel heart broken because great people missing in my i haven't gotten over my parents just wanted to tell your kids I know how it feels to have both parents gone it sure not easy I still have my parents number and facebook on my phone I didn't want to delete them

What wanted to tell you all I am so sorry for your loss your mother my aunt second mom had a great heart always there for us when we needed help or someone to talk with and to tell you that i love you all call me anytime you still family
