Dorothy Laverne (Robbins) Martin was born on January 23, 1938 in Lexington, Texas to Talbert H. and Jessie (Thornton) Robbins. She was baptized in 1975 at Calvary Baptist Church in Gardendale. Growing up everybody knew her as “Punkin”, and many people still know her as that. Dorothy married Randal Martin on June 11, 1965 in Houston. Their marriage was blessed with five children – Clifton, Bill, Richard, Debbie, and Elizabeth. She worked at Dr. Mantzel’s office as an administrative assistant and an Agent and at Wright Insurance Agency in Lexington for many years. Dorothy served as the secretary at Lexington Faith Temple and was involved in many other community events. She enjoyed reading, cooking, attending ice cream suppers, and listening to country and gospel music. Her grandson, Cliff Cody, also made music that she loved to listen to. Her greatest joy came from her family. She enjoyed attending family reunions and taking care of her family. She had a quick wit and found joy in making people laugh. Her grandchildren will miss her dearly as they loved spending time with her.

Dorothy passed away the morning of Friday, August 30, 2019 at CHI St. Joseph Health Regional Hospital in Bryan.
