“ I am so sorry for your loss. Prayers of comfort to the entire family. I didn't know Doug had been sick, but I had noticed no new postings or comments on Facebook for a little while. I always enjoyed Doug's music and singing back in the day. I had seen several pictures of his reenactment's of the war where he would dress the part. I have no doubt he is with his Shirley girl, who he often talked about. You will be missed my friend, rest easy now.

*My husband, Duke, often recalled stories how Doug, "the guys" & he would pull pranks when they worked at Alcoa. We can only imagine how heaven is adjusting to the pranks Doug, Finnie, Glen, Dean & others are pulling now.
We are thinking of you & wishing you moments of peace & comfort in knowing that your father was well thought of as both a co-worker & friend.*
