“ When I was in my teens, I remember Earl Roy Talley. He just arrived from Vietnam, and he and two other brothers came over my great grandmother's house in south Austin for a visit. The other time I rode in his vehicle to a Dairy Queen in south Austin. I will always remember him. r.i.p.

“ I will always remember the fun we had as children. Butch was such a joy to be around..
He visited me and my husband numerous times. He always left us feeling upbeat as his laughter was contagious, and such a delight to hear. My condolences to all his family, he will surely be missed.
