“ To me she was Grandma. It was easy to love her because she herself was so loving. I heard a story about how even at the nursing home she touched workers so much that they wanted to go help her even though she wasn't part of their rounds. It makes me think of how she was and what it was about her that made everyone love her. I hope I am like her in many of those ways. I know I'm quite like she was. There is no denying I'm short like she was. The one way I hope I will be like her is how much she loved her family. I know she loved us because of everything she did for us. All you had to do was ask and she would do it. I don't remember her ever saying no. She would always have everyone over for special occasions. I remember when I was little, going over to my grandparents' house for many Easters, Thanksgivings and Christmas'. She had toys we could play with and she would also put her old shoes and purses in with the toys for us to play with. I remember many Easter egg hunts in her yard where she took care of her plants. Thanksgivings when she would be in the kitchen all day cooking so the family had plenty of food to eat. Christmas' that had the strand of lights with the bubbles on the Christmas tree and her delicious Christmas sugar cookies. She made so many cookies, I can imagine how long it took for her to make them. But it didn't matter how much time she had to spend to do it, everything she did was because she loved us. I will miss her and all those special things about her. I'm so glad for all the great memories and the time I was able to spend with such a loving person. I love you Grandma.

“ *Mrs. Edna reminded me of my own mother full of life and wisdom with a kind and loving heart. Always ready to lend a helping hand that was full of love, she was one of a kind and this reflects in her children and grandchildren. She is now with her loving husband where she is perfect and is rejoicing with him! It is hard to let go but we should be envious and rejoice for her for she is now in her Heavenly home where the angels have welcomed her in!.
