

Elizabeth Anne Gonnella

November 9, 1984 - October 26, 2010

Graveside services for Elizabeth Anne Gonnella will be 3:00 PM Friday, October 29, 2010 in the Oak Lawn Cemetery in Rockdale. Her father, Rev. Dave Gonnella and Rev. Roy Ficak will officiate. A memorial service commemorating and celebrating the life of Elizabeth Anne Gonnella will be held at the Landmark Baptist Church on South Wilcox Street in Rockdale, Thursday, November 4, 2010 at 10:00 AM. The Rev. Dr. David E. Gonnella, pastor of the church will officiate. Beth left this life for the arms of Jesus on October 26, 2010. She was born on November 9, 1984 in Maysville, Kentucky. Beth was a blessing to all who knew her. She trusted Jesus Christ as her Saviour at the age of 4, and served Him with singleness of heart and mind until the moment she passed away. She was home schooled, a first-place winner of the Milam County Bible Knowledge Quiz, and attended Texas Woman's University in Denton, where she was on the Dean's List for three years until deteriorating health forced her to withdraw. A talented singer and musician, Beth played the piano, violin and classical guitar. Beth was associated with the Peabody Conservatory Youth Orchestra in Baltimore, the Mary Hardin Baylor Youth Orchestra in Belton, the Temple College Orchestra, and had a small part in a production of the opera, Le Nozze Di Figaro (The Marriage of Figaro) at Texas Woman's University. Most important to Beth was her relationship to Jesus Christ and her service for Him as a member of the Landmark Baptist Church. She was vitally involved in the music and children's ministries of the church. Beth is survived by her parents, David and Elaine Gonnella, and her sister, Rachel Gonnella. The family request, in lieu of flowers, that contributions be sent to; Texarkana Baptist Orphanage, P.O. Box 611, Texarkana, Arkansas 75504.
