

Ellen Lynn Davis

September 8, 1946 - January 6, 2025

Ellen Lynn Davis, 78, of Rockdale, passed away on Monday, January 6, 2025 in Baylor, Scott, and White Hospital in Round Rock. A private service was held.

Ellen was born on September 8, 1946 to Charles Jacob and Wilma Luella (Lloyd) Hoag in Vallejo, CA. After graduating from high school, she went on to earn her Associate's Degree in business management. She worked at the Puget Sound Navel Shipyard in Bremerton, WA for 24 years as a procurement specialist. On March 28, 1998, she married Clifford Emerson Davis in Bremerton, WA. She loved God, her family, and everything outdoors. She was very active in the church until her mobility made it no longer possible. For the last few years, she has been a member at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Thorndale. She was an accomplished rider when she was younger. She enjoyed walks and hikes, camping, gardening, and skiing. Recently she had started to learn how to sail, she enjoyed being on the water. She also enjoyed classical music and going to see orchestras perform.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Wilma Hoag; a brother, Charles Hoag; and sister, Ann DeCarmo.

Ellen is survived by her husband of 26 years, Clifford Davis of Rockdale; daughters, Linda Dourte and husband Bill of Jeannett, PA, and Cara Blotzer and husband Joseph Gomes of Manteca, CA; brother, Richard Hoag of Port Orchard, WA; grandchildren, Sara Wilson, Eric Wilson and wife Lindsay, Matthew Wilson and wife Jennifer, and Ricky Wilson and wife Kyla; great grandchildren, Hazel Wilson, Sage Wilson, and Emery Wilson; as well as many extended family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Ellen's name may be made to St. Paul Lutheran Church, Box 369, Thorndale, TX 76577

Tribute Wall

“ Linda Dourte lit a candle in memory of Ellen Lynn Davis ”

linda dourte - January 23, 2025 at 10:58 AM