“ This fine lady stemmed from a very kind and God fearing family. I knew her parents and siblings as I went to school with her siblings, she was the youngest. I moved away from Giddings to Houston in '67, and did not know of Emilia then, as she was quite a few years younger than me. I met her when her brother's wife (Helen) passed at a funeral gathering in Houston. She came to me, and introduced herself to me, what a great memory she had. From that time on we became great friends via online. She was such a sweetheart, and shared a lot of stuff on Facebook! Rest in peace, my darling friend.

My condolences to her family. Her sister Mary, we were pals in school! May God shower each one of you with peace and comfort in your hearts!

“ May God comfort the Basquez family as they grieve for Emilia while recalling fond memories of her life. She was a good friend to all, with a generous smile and kindness, always asking how you were instead of complaining of her own suffering, and participating in what was going on at St. Margaret's or in the community. Her faith carried her through till the end and is an example of a true Christian. Special thoughts and many prayers to Emilia's numerous family members.
