“ Aunt Emma was always kind and loving to me, even when she called me gal. She would send me to the back for bell peppers and make me fried corn all the time. When I'd stay over she treated me just like Allie (Arlene) showing no difference towards me. To all of my cousins: I love you and send my and Aunt. Mary's condolences and love. She will be missed.

“ It has been a true honor to call Miss Emma family and the great grandmother to my 3 amazing kids, Curtisha, Rochelle and Curtis Jr.. I first met her 28 years ago and I'd always go to her house to eat. One day she came home and said, "Kim, Why every time I come home you still here? I laughed and kindly said...Aww Miss Emma, you know I'm hungry. She said, "Well tomorrow, you better not be here." I showed up anyway and she said, "Didn't I tell you not to be here?" I said "yes ma'am". She said well...since you here, you better sit down and EAT! Little did I know, this would be the beginning of a beautiful relationship between a Grandmother in law and granddaughter in law. We'd go on to have nick names for each other. We called each other "My Girl". I loved me some Miss Emma and she loved her entire family. When we lose a loved one, it hurts like a pain that one can't describe unless they have felt the loss themselves. I have shed many tears in the last week, but often my tears were confusing because I'd cry and laugh at the same time just thinking about some of the things she'd say. I find peace within because I KNOW she is with our Heavenly Father and Lord Jesus Christ. I've never met such soft spoken and caring person and never really believed angels walked the earth, but I can honestly say they do. Emma Silar was an angel that's been called home to rest because her work here is now done. May her legacy live forever in her beautiful daughters, Patricia and Arlene, in whom she loved dearly. As I say farewell, I repeat what the Father said when he welcomed her home...WELL DONE THY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. Until we meet again, rest on MY GIRL!

I'll never say goodbye because I will see you again.

*Love Always & Forever,
Kimberly Evett Moore*
