“ Eric was a super cool guy, a great friend and I will miss him. We always had so much to talk about, a normal phone call was over an hour almost every time. Since his passing I've stopped myself a couple times from calling and have to remember he's not going to be there. I still can't believe he's gone, but I will forever be grateful for our friendship which spanned over 25 years. My sincere condolences to all the family.

Till we meet again my brotha...
