To Eva's family, I don't know if you know how much Eva loved and how much she was loved, but to receive just a smidgen of that love was enormous. She is missed just when we don't see her for a little bit. I cannot fathom the abyss her passing will leave, but I am glad to know she's in our Father's arms and not having to deal with any further pain. All our prayers and love to you.
