“ My sweet Aunt Evelyn ...so many memories. She babied and raised any little kitten in danger...I never saw her be anything but sweet and kind. I was so lucky to have her and Uncle Duck in my family. I remember how she always smelled so good and she always had double mint gum in her purse with a scarf tied on the handle...she was so petite and beautiful. I looked up to her and admired her paintings and I always said when I grow up I wanted to paint beautiful pictures like Aunt Evelyn...so I did. And I attribute that to her <3 She was a very great lady <3
