“ You bought me my first basketball goal when I was 8 years old for my Birthday one year which I still have and a remote control Spider-Man car also . . You even bought me the first video game that ever came out called (pong) for Christmas one year also . I would spend time with you during summer vacation and You taught me how to shoot , how to fish , how to crack open pecans just using my hand and how to pick vegetables out of a garden , taught me the different kinds of birds ,and plants , how to feed cows and how to tell a joke ,and how to be a people person ,and I just loved the time I got to spend with my Auntie.

You were also my rock when Dad passed away and kept me going which I will never forget.

We grew apart in later years , didn't get to see you as much which happens in life with work , wife and kids and living far apart .

But you always had a special place in my heart. And the memories you made with me I will carry with me for the rest of my days .

When I was little and would fall down and hurt myself you would tell me get up shake it off and put some Auntie medicine on it (which was to spit on it LOL) and it would make it all better somehow .

Don't think Auntie medicine is going to work for missing you and this empty spot I have in my heart .

I Love You Auntie ..

“ Evelyn was one of my favorite regular clients. I looked forward to seeing Evelyn every week . She had a lot of spice in life. You never knew what she would come in with, usually a joke or comment that just made us laugh and smile. I will truly miss her but she is in a wonderful place now . May God bring peace to all of the family. Just cherish the memories you made with her. ❤️
