“ My name is Judy Hawthorne Sanders and I have two sisters... Sue Hawthorne Calhoun and Belinda Hawthorne Mikeal. Evelyn was the childhood friend of our mother Mary Scroggins Hawthorne. They grew up in Rockdale together. As children, Evelyn taught our mother sign language so they would be able to communicate with each other and our mother helped her in school after she became deaf. They were the best of friends until the day our mother died. When our mother was alive we would always make special trips to Rockdale so that our mother and Evelyn could spend some quality time together. We all enjoyed driving around Rockdale and listening to Evelyn and our mother Mary reminisce about their old school days. Even after our mother died, and Evelyn moved to the Woodlands, we continued to visit her no matter where she was living. My sisters and I enjoyed our visits with Evelyn. Now Evelyn is in heaven and reunited with our mother and I'm sure that they are speaking in sign language even now. Dear Evelyn you will be very much missed.
