Evelyn was born in Rockdale on September 3, 1936 to Walter and Hilda (Dornhoefer) Gerstenberger. She attended Gay Hill School and graduated from Rockdale High School in 1954, then went on to Durham Business School in Austin. On July 13, 1957, she married Mondrow Stork at Peace Lutheran Church in Rockdale. She went to work at ALCOA for a few years until Stanley was born and she became a homemaker. She loved gardening, yard work, and all things outdoors, including waving at neighbors that passed by. She cared for all animals especially her cows. She enjoyed walking the pastures until her later years and then driving her gator. She adored her boys and liked to spend time with extended family. She loved her blue 1978 suburban so much that it became a local icon in Rockdale parking lots. She received many compliments and offers to buy the suburban, but she would always smile and say “not for sale”.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Hilda Gerstenberger. Sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; June Gerstenberger, Elmer and Dorothy Eckert, FC and Doris Juneck, Jerry and OnaFay Skrhak, and Hank and Leola Sladek.

Evelyn is survived by her husband of 67 years, Mondrow Stork; sons, Stanley (Sherry) Stork, and Stacey "Gene" Stork; brother, Earl Gerstenberger; sister-in-law, Florence (Bob) Wilson; grandchildren, LeAnna (Jerry) Lewis and Ryan (Katherine) Lawler, plus numerous nieces, nephews and special friends. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Evelyn's name to the charity of your choice.
