“ Faye was a very likeable happy person. We had a good time in school. She would sometimes come home with me after school and we would get ready and go to the basketball game together. Those were fun and happy times. She was always happy.

“ *Faye was my best childhood friend who lived through the woods and over a hill from my house. I have many wonderful memories of visiting her home and of Faye coming to stay with us. We went to Dime Box School for all twelve years and rode the school bus together. Faye was a delightful fun friend. She is now in the arms of our Lord. I send condolences to the Bentke family.
