“ She was my very first baby sitter. I was only a few days old when my mother was hospitalized after giving birth. Ms. Freddy always liked to tell people that she got to take care of me and my brother when I was just a little baby. She was a special lady.

“Freddie was such a precious lady! She had so many funny stories to tell of her family. She cared about her friends and always ready to do something to help or comfort. She and sister Bette loved to shop, often bought matching outfits, both looked great in them. They were very fashionable!! Both loved colors, patterns, etc. Would ask "Where did you get that dress, or pants, whatever"? Both always noticed what someone was wearing and sure to compliment the wearer.

I first met Freddie in 1965ish as a secretary in the Rockdale High School principal's, Tom Underwood, office where she was always kind and very helpful! She was loved and will be greatly missed. Loved her Lord and never shy to talk about her faith in Christ.

“ Aunt Freddye, we all loved you and "sister" very much. Thank you for everything, from the family reunions we had growing up, to the kindness you showed to my daughter. I'm happy knowing she was able to meet you and able to see how wonderful you were. The last of the siblings, who are all missed very much. I love you, Aunt Freddye.
