“ I remember how nervous I was before JV cheerleader tryouts and George put his arm around me and said, "Now Surovik, what are you worried about. You are gonna win this because you are one of the nicest girls I know". And I remember to this day how his sweet words made me feel more relaxed. So kind to me always❤️. My prayers to the family.

“ I will always remember George as the "loud mouth" who occupied the office across from mine. George was so much more though, he was a deeply caring, compassionate man who was there for anyone in need. George was proud of his ability to recover from his alcoholism and always had a hand out for anyone that felt they were going under. I am truly saddened to learn of George's passing. RIP dear George!

I am pretty sure George brought a DONKEY to school for Hillbilly day! Needless to say there were no more "Hillbilly" days in High School... Hugs George, you were one of a kind :)
