He was preceded in death by his parents, James C. and Barbara J. (Van Winkle) Vance of San Antonio, his sister Marion Burch of Houston, and stepdaughter Damaris Taylor of Georgetown.

Glenn was a graduate of Lee High School, San Antonio College, Trinity University, and St. Mary's Law School, all in San Antonio. During his 20's, before law school, Glenn worked in television production, as studio manager of the TV-Film unit at the University of Texas Health Science Center as San Antonio, as a producer/director for the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, and for the engineering staff at KENS-TV.

At the end Glenn tried to get out of bed and kept saying "hurry, hurry." His wife asked him if he was talking to God and he just smiled and closed his eyes. He died soon after from heart failure on the evening of Friday, December 11, 2020 at his beloved residence in Paige.

A celebration of Glenn's life will occur at a later date.

“ Glenn was an excellent lawyer and trainer. He had a vast working knowledge of the law and was a "go-to" person for many of us at the Office of the Attorney General. I always learned so much during his presentations in teaching modules and statewide sessions at conferences. He was such a pleasure to work and interact with and always kept a cool and calm demeanor in the most stressful of situations. A real gentleman and professional. Glenn will be missed by his OAG family. My sincere condolences and sympathy for his family. Chip Arnold, Reg. 5 RD and Friend

“ I first met Glenn at a Statewide Assistance Attorney General conference when I returned to the agency after having been gone for over a decade - I was able to connect the funny, sweet guy with the melodious voice of knowledge in many of the recorded trainings I had been taking. After a few years, I moved to state office as an attorney trainer and was very blessed to have Glenn in the office right next to mine to ask for his opinion about my endless parade of ideas. He always had great advice - brilliant and honest mixed with just the right touch of kindness and calm to temper my enthusiasm. I pray that Glenn's family will find the peace that Glenn's wonderful advice brought to so many. Bobbie Kellner

“ I had the tremendous honor of working along side of Glenn at KENS-TV back in the mid 1980's. I was in high school and he was on his way to law school. He was my mentor and friend. Always wise. Always funny. Always at ease. May God's peace and joy be yours, Vance Family, as you remember this great man who impacted so many.

“ Glenn & I worked on many projects together at the Office of the Attorney General and he had a sly wit. The pics he posted of his property were so great. You know he enjoyed being retired. I loved watching that bahrumph face he would make when I would call him on something at work. "That may be so, but..." was always the next line. Good memories of a life well spent.
