Guadalupe was born to Miguel and Conception Montoya on October 21, 1925 in Milam County, Texas near Rockdale. She worked for years as a cook and waitress at the Alcoa Café and in her later years became a home health nurse. She enjoyed gardening and never lost that ranching/farming drive.

Guadalupe's work here on earth is done. Recognized for her hard work, willingness to always help another, and her relentless effort to be the best that she could be. She received a call, a sort of an offer you can't refuse, for an appointment from which she will not be returning. This assignment comes with a huge sign-on bonus, a reunion with family and friends she has not seen in a long time, and a residence at a prestigious gates community. Where the gates are made of pearls and streets of gold. Where job security is exactly 110 percent. Her new mission takes her to this wonderful place where her new career will include socializing, dancing, gardening and cooking to her heart's content. Music, laughter and love are guaranteed. Food is delicious and you never gain an ounce. Her children celebrate her mission here, which has now been completed.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Miguel and Conception (Vela) Montoya; brother, Oscar Montoya; and sister, Leanor Martinez.

Guadalupe is survived by her son, Daniel Reyes of San Diego, California; daughter, Delia Garza of Houston, Texas; grandchildren, Danny, Jason, Joey, Heather, and Dillonger; numerous great grandchildren; brother, Mike Montoya and wife Carmen of Rockdale, Texas; sister, Aurora M. Cruz and husband Ted of San Antonio, Texas; as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

Serving as pallbearers are grandsons, Jason Callis, Joey Callis and Dillonger Hackett; great grandson, Jacob Monciavis; and nephews, Alex Hernandez, Louis Aguilar, and Oscar Montoya Jr.
