“ I was a friend of her daughter Penney and had the chance to meet her a few times and eat few meals as well. This fine lady was always patient, kind, supportive and encouraging. A good Christian woman. I was given the news of her leaving us and going home the day after the funeral. To her family, I just want to say I am sorry I was not able to make the funeral because I didn't know about it until afterwards. Rest assured we will see her again.

“ Aunt Gwen was a Beautiful Phenomenal Angel here on Earth who Loved Everyone & saw the Best in Everyone. Above All She Loved GOD & JESUS & always shared her LOVE for them!!! Me & My sister grew up with with our cousins Penney & Amy and spent alot of time with Aunt Gwen & Uncle Claude. Aunt Gwen use to tell us stay in the room after the kitchen was cleaned at night. Everytime we would sneak in the kitchen to make a salad and Penney would get hers fixed and we would be making ours..Penney would get half way back to the room & scream and we couldnt get everything back in the fridge fast enough to jump in the bed and pretend asleep. Aunt Gwen would come through that door so quick and get on to us for not minding. We would just laugh and laugh afterwards. Then one time we didn't close the gate at the farm and the cows got out so we had to get them back in. We would run those cows and the field was wet. We literally had mud high heels and Penney would go jump on the back of the truck while we still chased those stubborn cows. Aunt Gwen laughed so hard she was in tears. She loved us and gave us the best of times while we were with her and she made sure of it. So many cherished memories. I will FOREVER LOVE & MISS YOU AUNT GWEN!!!! Never Goodbye Only See You Later!!!

“ I will forever miss you sweet sister. I'm missing everything about you. It's hard to imagine life without you. My phone doesn't ring at 6:45 in the morning for our coffee and tea time. You got your wings now and your pain free and for that I thank God. We'll watch out for Claude and make sure he's good so you rest easy now. I'll meet you on the porch same time for our tea time. Just know that our love didn't stop it never will I love you so much there are no words to express my love for you or how much I missing you. Give mother dad Franky, Gordon, David, Albert and Cassandra big hugs and kisses from me and tell them I lowered miss them. But without because Crazy Daisy's coming one day a it's gonna be a ROCKING REUNION.

“ Not knowing where to begin or how to even grasp the idea that our Aunt Squeaky is now resting with the Lord is hard to believe. Seems like just a few weeks ago we was sitting at the hospital talking about how much time we spent with you and how we miss those days. Memories that will forever be treasured. A childhood that will replay over and over. Thank you beautiful angel for all the fun times and time spent with us as kids up to adults. A beautiful soul now lays at rest. Aunt Squeaky you will forever be loved and missed. Heaven gained a beautiful soul. God makes no mistakes. Its never goodbye but until we meet again.

*Loving you forever,
Brandy*
