“ Best regards to all the family and friends who feel the loss of Harold, my cousin. But not a true loss, since his memory will always linger for those who knew him and respected him. My memories are vague, because of the years and miles between. But Harold was a good man - an honorable tribute, for which any of us could hope. I thank the Lord for his life (and would appreciate knowing his testimony).

“ *I just remember what a wonderful man Harold Dean was. The highest compliment I can honor his memory with is that he reminded me of my own dear Father. When you search for a good, strong, honest, hardworking family man, who put God and family first, this was Harold. He will be missed. May God comfort you, Ruth, and all of the Hutson family.
