She was baptized at an early age at Christ Lutheran Church in Loebau. After the death of her parents, she lived in various state schools and foster homes. Helen returned to Lee County in November of 2012 and resided at Oakland Manor Nursing Center in Giddings. Helen loved to color in her color books, watch Barney & Friends, sing and dance and play her harmonica. The first thing she would ask for when visiting Alfred & Betty and their family was "I want a hamburger and a soda water." Helen's smile and laughter would light up a room. Her greatest joy was spending her birthday and Christmas with Alfred & Betty and their family. Helen gave us many memories throughout her life that we will cherish forever.
