Going back to when we met you in the mid-70's, we shared many experiences and good times as roommates, coworkers and friends. You warmed our hearts. “ I've known Helen for many years working with the City of Austin WIC program. Helen always took pride in doing everything she could for clients. She was so good at giving our clientele a kind-hearted compliment. She took a strong interest in her colleagues well being and would always ask about my son and my parents. She knew I enjoyed my coffee and I will cherish the coffee cups she gave me when I worked with her. My prayers and condolences to all of her family and friends. Rest In Peace💕

I worked with Helen Flores for several years. She had very good rapport with clients and was always asking after everybody's wellbeing. For many years she offered me tea everytime I was at her clinic because she heard that I love to have my morning tea. A very generous person; will be missed. May her soul rest in peace.

“ I've known Helen all my life. We lived down the road from each other. We even use to pick her up for school every morning. We were good friends. She was a sweet, caring, crazy and nutty lady. I'm still in shock of her passing and so sad I won't be attending the services. I'm out of state but my love is there. RIP my dear friend love you.

Helen and I went to school together in Rockdale. Her nickname in high school was "Grandma". She was a great person and friend. I hadn't seen Helen in years, but I see that she was right next door to me in Georgetown. I live in Round Rock. I was upset to hear of her passing. But God doesn't make mistakes. To her beloved family, I offer my sincere condolences and prayers of comfort.

I have known Helen since she was a little girl. I had the pleasure of working with her at St. Edwards University, Austin, TX, in the the 1970's. She was a facilitator and counselor to students working on their GED or college degree . Her rapport with students and staff was that of friendship, encouragement, and assistance. Many of those that she motivated went on to graduate with a Bachelor Degree. Jesus Lopez
