Henrietta Thompson was born on March 8, 1930 in Lexington, Texas to Henry and Cora (Wooley) Bailey. In 1949, she was united in marriage to Ector Vaughn "Sonny" Thompson. Over the years Henrietta was active in the community and volunteered with Meals on Wheels and for the M&M ministry at Lexington United Methodist. She was happiest spending time with family and friends. She enjoyed reading, traveling, playing cards, cooking, and spending summers in Colorado. Henrietta always continued to learn and stayed up on current events. She said the key to life was always having faith in God and that you're only as happy as you want to be. For 93 years she was able to live an incredibly full life. Her stories are ones that will be told and cherished for years to come. She had a giant heart and an even bigger personality. Her family and friends loved her big and she will be greatly missed. The family is so thankful that she made her mark on so many people's lives.

Henrietta is preceded in death by her husband, Sonny Thompson; her parents, Henry and Cora Bailey; two sons, Bryan and Raymond Thompson; one granddaughter, Jennifer Thompson, and her sister, Ida Belle Colvin.
