The family will be present for visitation Sunday evening from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Herman Max Ihlo was born on January 26, 1937 in McDade, Texas to Max Friedrich Ihlo and Helena Paulina (Eschberger) Ihlo. He was baptized on March 14, 1937 at St. Andrew's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Paint Creek and confirmed there on May 13, 1951 by Rev. L. Karcher. His confirmation verse was "Godliness is profitable until all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." 1 Timothy 4:8. On July 21, 1960, Herman joined the Army in Giddings, Texas. He was discharged on July 6, 1962 with the rank of PFC (E-3) when he went to Fort Hamilton, New York for duty in the reserves. Herman was a well-known carpenter who, in his later years, enjoyed supervising his family and friends when needed. He enjoyed fishing and visiting with friends and family. He was a man that loved being outside playing with his dogs and tending the cows. Herman passed away the morning of Friday, May 9, 2014 at the V.A. Hospital in Temple, Texas. He was preceded in death by his parents, Max and Helena Ihlo and his sister, Edna Voight. Herman is survived by his brother-in-law,

Eldie Voight of McDade; his two nieces, Nancy and husband, Stephen Kasper of Giddings and Ginger and husband, James Clifford of Lexington; great-nephews, Shawn Kasper and wife, Jessica of Austin, Kyle Kasper and wife, Laurie of Giddings, Nathanael Clifford of Lexington, and Matthew Clifford of Lexington; great-niece, Andrea Clifford of La Grange; a great-great-niece and a great-great-nephew; as well as numerous cousins and extended family. Pallbearers will be Shawn Kasper, Kyle Kasper, Nathanael Clifford, Matthew Clifford, Russell Schulz, and Jimmie Eschberger. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the St. Andrew's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Paige, TX, or to a charity of one's choice.
