

Herschel Graff

September 4, 1927 - May 11, 2017

Herschel Graff, 89, of Caldwell was called home to his Lord on Thursday, May 11, 2017. He was surrounded by family and loved ones. Memorial services will be held on Saturday, May 20, at 2 pm in the Harmony Baptist Church of Caldwell. Rev. Delmar McCracken will preside over services. Burial was held at an earlier date at the Oaklawn Cemetery in Somerville, TX.

Herschel Graff was born to Edwin Ernest Graff and wife Velma Pettis Graff on September 4, 1927 in Houston, TX. He enlisted in the Navy and was a Seaman First Class during WW II. Herschel later graduated from University of Houston with a degree in Economics. He then went to accounting school and became a licensed CPA in 1953 and was until his passing. Herschel was also a cattle rancher and an avid fisher and hunter. He was also a very faithful to God and served in many capacities. Mr. Graff was a worship leader at Harmony Baptist Church and a member for over 40 years. He also did prison ministries in various countries and was a nursing home minister for over 12 years. He never thought of himself, he always thought of others.

Herschel was preceded in death by his parents, Edwin E. and Velma P. Graff; and his wife, Christine Love Graff.

He is survived by his sons, Larry Graff, Sr., Paul Graff, and David L. Graff; six grandchildren, Larry Graff, Jr., Tanya Graff, Diana Graff, Bryan Graff, David J. Graff, and Jonathan Graff; and great grandchildren.
