“ Bro Homer Bradshaw Sr, as I recall from my experience with him and his beautiful family back in the mid seventies, was a quiet and sober minded leader. He was a sacrificial servant and visionary. He was one of the pillars that supported a dynamic group of young Christians called the “crusaders” to travel and sing inspiring gospel songs all around. The group was made up of his children and other young people. They have left a lasting impression in my heart through out the years. Bro Bradshaw’s faith, courage and dedication lives on in his children and grandchildren. “...Children’s children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children is their father. ...”Proverbs 17:5-6

“ We will miss Cousin Homer at the family reunions. He was there almost every year. In all of the years I've known him (all my life), I never heard him say a mean word about anyone. He was one of the best people I ever knew. Our Condolences to the family.
