

Howard "Bubba" Bormann

February 10, 1968 - June 17, 2024

A memorial service for Howard "Bubba" Bormann, 56, of Ledbetter, Texas are scheduled for 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 29, 2024 at Soul Café in Ledbetter with Pastor Doug Tipps officiating. Burial will follow in the Ledbetter Cemetery.

Howard Joseph "Bubba" Bormann was born in Houston, TX on February 10, 1968, the 5th child (and the FIRST boy) of 7. Bubba loved his family, his motorcycles, his coffee, children and plants. He was never without a cup of coffee. And had an ivy named Angel. He enjoyed playing games and just sitting around and visiting with his family. Bubba was loved by his family, and his many friends. He was always making jokes and laughing. When asked what he did for a living he liked to say that he flew fighter jets. He was actually, a jack of all trades doing a little of everything from repoing to electrical work. I guess you could say he was never bored.

Bubba passed away peacefully on the evening of June 17, 2024 in Navasota, TX following a long battle with cancer. He will be greatly missed. He is no longer in pain.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Daniel Bormann and Barbara Kluge; and one sister, Debbie (Sallas) Folkmire.

Bubba is survived by his children, Jessica Bormann of Houston, Damon

Bormann of Dallas, and Aaron Bormann and wife Destiny of Texas City; five siblings, Lynda Sallas and husband Jim of Michigan, Charity Stone and husband David of Houston, Paula VanHorn and husband Bruce of Hempstead, Gayla Williamson of Houston, and Bobby Williamson of Houston; as well as numerous grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family.

Memorials may be made to the Soul Café, or to the charity of one's choice.
