“ So sorry that we lost Fletch. He was the man! He loved cars and boats, as I recall. Very outgoing, personable, and fun to be around. I'm visualizing the two of us chatting at one of the more recent Class of '56 Reunions in El Paso pulled together by our Reunion King, Hap! I express my Condolences to all the family, and I pray that our God in Heaven brings comfort to those of you who mourn Fletch's passing.

“ I was so happy to see and visit with “Fletch” during our 80th birthday celebration in El Paso a few years ago. He invited me and my wife Sandy to visit him and his wife at the east Texas home in the beautiful hills outside of Austin. I am sorry now that we never made that trip but will forever remember him as a wonderful man who I will cherish my friendship for the rest of my life.
