“ Hello Family and please accept my condolences. I know Ms. Mosley because she shared a room with my mom. Not a night went by that I didn't pray for her and my mom at their bedside. I didn't know if Ms. Mosley was a Christian or not during that time but I always asked God to watch over her. I so much enjoyed looking in her eyes when she would look my way. My mom, who has some dementia, would sing to her at night and sort of watch over her like a big sister would do. They seem to connect in their own way. I am glad that our sovereign God called her to Him. No more suffering in this world. Thank you for reassuring my spirit when I read the obituary that I now know for sure her soul is in heaven with Jesus. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding be yours for we know the gains of heaven will more than compensate for the losses of earth. Bless you family,
Sylvia & Mom
