“ Please accept my most sincere sympathy over the loss of Inez. She was such a sweet lady, and we were next-door neighbors at one time back in the early 1960s. My dad, Eddie Braun, loved seeing her at the Senior Citizens' Center and if she happened not to be there one day, he always wondered if she was okay. May God hold you in His loving arms as you cope with your grief, and know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
