

Jackie Leroy Sadler

January 26, 1941 - April 11, 2025

Jackie Leroy Sadler, 84, passed away peacefully on April 11, 2025, in Georgetown, Texas. Born on January 26, 1941, in Overton, Texas. Jackie lived a life marked by hard work, unwavering determination, and deep devotion to his family and faith.

A self-made man with a strong work ethic, Jackie built a successful career as a glazer. He owned and operated his own company for several years before joining Hull Supply. There, he dedicated over two decades of service and took great pride in working alongside the owner, Rick Hull. His commitment to excellence and perseverance were hallmarks of his professional life.

Jackie was deeply loyal to his wife of 64 years, Carolyn Sadler. Their enduring partnership was a testament to love and steadfast support. He was proud of their children and grandchildren – his son JD Sadler; daughter Roxy Tucker and husband Jay; granddaughter Jen Reed and her husband Kyle; grandson Davis Tucker; granddaughter Jessica Fuller and her husband Cory and granddaughter Jacqueline Sadler; along with five great-grandchildren. His sister Juanita McGilvra and her husband Earl also held a special place in his heart. He was preceded in death by his sister Jean Hines.

Outside of work and family, Jackie found happiness in the simple pleasures of life. He loved fishing, boating, gardening, and traveling across the country in his RV with Carolyn by his side. These hobbies reflected his appreciation for nature and adventure.

A man of deep faith, Jackie lived by principles that inspired those around him:

never give up, stay determined, and always honor your commitments. His legacy is one of resilience, love for family, and an unshakable belief in doing what's right.

May Jackie's memory bring comfort to all who knew him and serve as a lasting reminder of a life well lived.
