

James Wilburn Krall

August 17, 1943 - January 20, 2012

Krall, James W. 68 of Austin formerly of Caldwell went to be with our heavenly father on Friday, January 20, 2012 in Austin. Services are planned for Tuesday, January 24, 2012 at Phillips & Luckey Chapel at 2:00pm with Bro. Leroy Brown officiating. Interment will follow in the Caldwell Masonic Cemetery. The visitation will be from 11 to 2:00 pm Tuesday. James was born August 17, 1943 in Caldwell to parents Charlie Krall and Ruby Mack. As a child, James never missed a day of school or Sunday school and was a devoted Christian. He married Kay Thornton January 2, 1992 in Caldwell. He has traveled many places including Africa, Europe, and Austria. He enjoyed fishing and hunting, and during his latest hunting trip with his brother and son, he killed many wild hogs. He enjoyed making sausage and homemade BBQ sauce. He was an avid gardener. He was always there when somebody needed him to be. James was a very loving man, loving husband, and loving father and grandfather. He enjoyed sitting outside every afternoon with his schnauzers feeding them treats, with his favorite being Uno. He retired from Mobil Oil Corporation after 28 years. James and Kay went on to become the owners of KK Fab.
