“ Jack, my eldest brother, was one of the finest men I’ve ever known. Kind, gentle, caring, compassionate, and a lover of people and especially God our Father. I wish I had seen this memory space before now. Jack was a wonderful son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and uncle. He cherished friends. He was so special to me. I still miss his twinkling blue eyes. Memories of him still flood my mind, wishing I could once again tell him “I love you “.

“ Although it has been many, many years since I last saw or spoke to Jack, I have occasionally thought back on him fondly. He was a blessing to me and my family. Always there when needed, a friend when in need, loving, giving, a great teacher and quite patient. Yes sir, I know that I will see you again one day soon and I praise the Lord for putting you on this earth and in my path. Stephen Ferrell
