“ It was only today that I learned of Janet's passing. I'm glad to see that she had fulfilled her goal of becoming a PT. We shared good times in the CHS Choir. May peace and blessings be upon her family and friends.

“ Janet and I were married in Austin in 1971. Our brief time together was filled with joy, but more than our share of sorrow. I remember well the times Janet would bring my dinners to the gas station where I worked night shifts to make ends meet while we were studying at UT. We would keep the S&H green stamps from the customers that did not want them and redeem them for things we needed. We would use the hydrolic car lifts as a table when we shared the dinners that she had prepared each evening. Janet always insisted that I have a warm diner. She always tried to make the best of everything, even when they looked the worst. I take comfort in believing that Janet is dwelling in Church Triumphant holding our infant son Jereme in her arms. I would not be the man that I am today were it not for the times, both joyful and tearful, we experienced together. It's been over 40 years, but Janet still holds a special place in my heart. Love always, Larry Hearn

“ I spent many a Saturday night at Janet's house while our parents went to dances. Her dad and my dad both worked at Alcoa and car pooled together. I grew up with her and her 2 sisters. My memories of these times are very good ones. We graduated in 1970 and I think over the years I only got to see her about 3 times. She was a awesome friend and I am very much saddened to hear of her death. I will keep her, her family and friends in my prayers.

“ I'll never forget Janet. She was my first love, way back in high school in the 1966. I met her in the high school choir. She was so shy and petite, a real wall flower. But I was head over heels in love with her. But, she was a Catholic and I was a Baptist, and that was a big deal back then. As she grew more confident, she found better looking guys than me. But we had our moments. And they were sweet. I'll never forget her.
I wrote this song about her, long time ago. Its sad, so get ready.

*The girl who taught me to kiss called me up today
Its been sixteen years
Since I held her in my arms
But her memory hasn't faded
In any way.
I can see her.
I can feel her.
I can still smell her perfume.
And I just can't wait to feel the warmth
Of her breath upon my cheek.*

*I treasure the days, in the late 70's, when I worked with Janet at Austin Travis County Health Dept. and was blessed with her friendship. We took some mighty fun ski trips to Aspen and Taos !. Janet was the sweetest, kindest person. Although I hadn't seen Janet for some years, I am deeply saddened and send love and condolences to her family, both human and canine.
