“ Jason was indeed a fine man who did his best to help and take care on His mom and Josie. He was kind, gentle, unassuming person who handled challenges with a cheerful heart never expecting help and willing to help others.

Jason's family has lost one of God's special gifts. He will be terribly missed.

Prayers of comfort and courage for his family and friends.

“ My nephew, my friend we had some awesome adventures together way to many to list, although I will remember them all. It was a RODEO. Until we meet again, I will think of you often.
