

Jasper D. Peters

August 12, 1952 - August 24, 2014

Jasper D. Peters Jr., 62 of Lexington passed away August 24, 2014 in Bryan. A celebration of life is pending at this time....

Jasper was born August 12, 1952 in Freeport, Texas to parents Jasper Peters sr. and Delta (Brinkman) Peters. Jasper worked as millwright for most of his life. In his younger days, he enjoyed building go fast toys. His hobbies included fishing and hunting but mostly sitting on his porch rocking was his pastime. He was an outdoor enthusiast.

He was preceded in death by his father and a sister, Jeanette Scott, and a granddaughter, Emma.

Jasper is survived by his loving family, his wife, Phyllis Urban Peters of Lexington, five daughters, Marlo Lieb and husband Frank of Brazoria, Jennifer Gardner and husband Darrell of Angleton, Le Ann Davis and husband Timothy I of Livingston, Danielle Peters of Angleton and Sara Hawn and husband Anthony of Holiday Lakes. And a step-son Phillip Callas of Lexington, by 22 grandchildren; Ryan, Joshua, Chelsea, Kayleigh, Darrell, Tiance, Jordan, Madison, Christian, April, Timothy II, Robert, Weldon, Destiny, Selena, Alyssa, Avyana, Julianna, Hannah, Crystal, Jonathan and Madison and 3 great grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

GL

“ I loved my friend and brother Elie and all of the girls I just found out that jasper past today he was one of the best friends I ever had I am very sorry that I lost contact with all of you.gdr5@verizon.net glenn roberts I am sorry for your loss and i love all of you glenn.

glenn - September 01, 2014 at 02:56 PM