“ This beautiful lady entered my life right after I got out of the Military. We have a baby girl named Kaylee. This was one of the happiest days of her life. We spent her later teens and early 20's together. We were young and adventurous. She was my back bone. When she left, a piece of me also left. We always talked about growing old together while watching her (Woo Woo). We have an angel watching over us now and helping me and Kaylee get through. Jazmin Salazar You tattooed my name on you. Forever. Forever your a part of me, apart of our only child and only daughter. We Love You and will continue to strive for Self Love and Self Peace.

“ I am in shock and very sad for your (our) loss. I met Jazmin at Rice Children's Campus where we both worked. We later reconnected when she came to work for me as my lead PreK teacher at the Littlest Ones School. She was funny and fun. She was so, so creative. She could draw anything. She was beautiful and crazy and I will miss her. Ms. Connie
