Jerry Wayne Kaiser was born on October 5, 1967 in Houston, Texas to Jerrold Edward Kaiser and Ruth Ann (McConKey) Kaiser. He was baptized March 8, 1970 at St. James Lutheran Church in Lexington. Cotton was a farmer/rancher his whole life which really fit in to his lifestyle. He was a man that loved to hunt, fish, and Bar-B-Que. Cotton was considered a true country boy that would do anything to help a neighbor. He loved spending time with his animals, family, and his friends.

He passed away the morning of Wednesday, October 12, 2022 at his home in Lexington.

Cotton was preceded in death by his parents, Jerrold and Ruth Kaiser, and his uncle Stanley Nance.

He is survived by his siblings, Paul and wife Sabrina Kaiser of Lexington, and Robert Kaiser of North Carolina; two aunts, Judith Nance of Lexington, and Genie and husband Kenny Davis of Lexington; two cousins, Tracy and husband Randy Lambert of Lexington, Kevin and wife Lacy Davis of Lexington; four nephews, Nathaniel Kaiser of Temple, Brandon Level of Virginia, Dustin Grazier of Lexington, and Caleb Kaiser of Lexington; one niece, Ashely Kaiser of Navasota, close friend, Brandon Drosche of Lexington and several other extended family.

Memorials may be made to the family to help offset final expenses or to St. James Lutheran Church.

“ Cotton always had a smile. He never met a stranger and was always there to lend a helping hand when needed. He will be missed by many.

Go high on the mountain and rest now . Your work is done here on earth. Until we meet again.
