

Jessie Faye Harvey Partain Labit

September 7, 1918 - July 7, 2008

Jessie Faye Harvey Partain Labit age 89 of Lexington, passed away Monday, July 7, 2008 in the Manor Oaks Nursing & Rehab in Rockdale. She was born September 7, 1918 in Clairette, Texas to Austin Ezekiel Harvey & Minnie (Mayfield) Harvey. Mrs. Labit was raised in Clairette. She has lived in Lexington for the past 7 years, having also lived in Tanglewood, Georgetown and Fort Worth. She had worked for Farmers Insurance Group in Austin for 25 years, retiring in 1978. Jessie Faye was an active member in Tanglewood Baptist Church. She served as church pianist until she was almost eighty. As her health declined she moved to Lexington to the Savannah apartments and found a new group of friends. She is survived by daughters Joyce Forest and husband Bill of Austin; Ednoa Rylander of Lexington, and son , Jimmy N. Labit and wife Tamara of Fairchild AFB, Washington. She is also survived by two granddaughters, Laura Eaton and husband Ron of Slaton, Jennifer Covington and husband Jeff of New Braunfels. Her pride and joy were her great grandchildren; Anthony Camacho of Austin, Casey & Aaron Rylander of Lexington, Dustin & Dillon Labit of Fairchild AFB, Washington, and Autumn Covington of New Braunfels. She was preceded in death by her parents, Austin and Minnie Harvey, her first husband, Alton Partain, her second husband, Jessie Labit and her son, Paul Partain. She lived her life to give to others and be of service to her Lord. Through the years she has "adopted" many who needed a place to stay, some food, or just a friend with whom to talk. No matter what adversity she faced, her faith and trust in God provided a way through her trouble. She lived a life filled with hope. Visitation will be Tuesday, July 8th from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at Phillips & Luckey Funeral Home in Lexington. Funeral services at 10:00 AM Wednesday, July 9, 2008 at Tanglewood Baptist Church with burial at 4:00 PM at Clairette Cemetery near Stephenville.
