

Jim L. Henry

November 13, 1965 - June 7, 2026

Jim L. Henry, 60, passed away surrounded by the memories of a life well lived. He was born on November 13, 1965, in Andrews, Texas, to Harvey and Haroletta Henry.

Jim graduated from Rockdale High School in 1984 and went on to attend Blinn College. After college, he decided to enter the workforce, where his dedication and strong work ethic led him to a successful career. He most recently served as a supervisor at TrueCar, a position he held with pride and commitment.

Jim proudly served his country in the United States Navy where he served on the USS Lang, an experience that helped shape the character, discipline, and sense of adventure that defined his life.

A longtime resident of Austin, Jim loved everything the city had to offer. He embraced its culture, music, and vibrant spirit. He also had a passion for travel and was happiest when exploring new places. Jim especially loved sailing and spending time on Lake Travis, finding peace and joy in every opportunity to be near the lake, river, or sea. But his favorite adventure was his yearly trip to New Orleans with all of his closest friends.

Known for his friendly nature and generous heart, Jim touched the lives of many people throughout his journey. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Jim is survived by his parents, Harvey and Haroletta Henry, as well as a host of family members and friends who will cherish his memory forever.
